GLOBAL ETF SECURITIES METHODOLOGY

On the last Exchange Day of the month immediately preceding the Issue Date, and on the last Exchange Day of each month thereafter (each, an “Allocation Date”), the Strategy will compare the Closing Level of each Tracked Index on such Allocation Date to its average Closing Level over the 100 Exchange Days including and immediately preceding such Allocation Date (each, a “Moving Average”) to determine the composition of the Portfolios for the following month.

If the Closing Level of a Tracked Index on any Allocation Date is equal to or greater than its Moving Average, the applicable Portfolio for the immediately following month will be composed of the Underlying Securities of the corresponding ETF.

If the Closing Level of a Tracked Index on any Allocation Date is less than its Moving Average, the applicable Portfolio for the immediately following month will be composed of the Underlying Securities of the Bond ETF.

The table below indicates the Initial Weighting for the Portfolio allocated to the corresponding ETF on the Initial Valuation Date. The Portfolios will be rebalanced back to their Initial Weightings on an annual basis as described in the Pricing Supplement.

Portfolio	Initial Weighting
iShares® Core S&P 500 ETF	40%
iShares® Core MSCI EAFE ETF	30%
iShares® Core MSCI Emerging Markets ETF	20%
iShares® Russell 2000 ETF	10%

An investment in the Debt Securities involves risks. An investment in the Debt Securities is not the same as a direct investment in the Underlying Securities and investors have no rights with respect to the Underlying Securities, the ETFs, the Bond ETF or the securities comprising the Tracked Indices. The Debt Securities are considered to be “specified derivatives” under applicable Canadian securities laws. If you purchase Debt Securities, you will be exposed to changes in the prices of the Underlying Securities and fluctuations in interest rates, among other factors. Price changes may be volatile and an investment in the Debt Securities may be considered to be speculative. Since the Debt Securities are not principal protected and the Principal Amount will be at risk, you could lose substantially all of your investment.

The Debt Securities are not fixed income securities and are not designed to be alternatives to fixed income or money market instruments. The Debt Securities are structured products that possess downside risk.

The initial estimated value of the Debt Securities set forth on the cover page of the applicable Pricing Supplement does not take into account the ongoing fees and expenses applicable during the term of the Debt Securities, including the ongoing annual component of the Note Program Amount, or any Canadian foreign tax credits or deductions which may be available to the Bank in respect of foreign withholding taxes which may apply to dividends and other distributions received by the Bank if the Bank were to hedge its obligations under the Debt Securities by acquiring the Underlying Securities.
