¹ The Note will pay monthly distributions equal to 5.04% per annum of the value of the Equity Account. [†]The charts show historical returns (calendar years 2003-6) and simple or annualized compound returns (1-yr, 3-yrs, 5-yrs, since incep.) to March 31, 2007 for Series A units and are not intended to indicate future volatility or potential return (if any) on the Fund or the Notes. The charts assume reinvestment of all Distributions on units of the Fund and exclude sales, redemption, distribution, or optional charges or taxes that would have reduced returns. The performance data reflects payment of the Fund's management expense ratio ("MER") for the indicated periods. As Equity Account portfolio fees may be higher than the Fund's MER, its performance may have been lower than the returns shown.
